

I added an award program, because it would be a cleaner way to capture the information of repeat customers as well as tracking points that the customer has earned to use towards future movies and concessions. It also allows tracking of customers that join the award program.

Capturing the theater and employee information allows the database to capture KPI information about the theater and employees.